Introduction.

The musical score is written for piano and consists of six systems of music. The first system is labeled 'Introduction.' and begins with a treble staff containing a few notes and a bass staff with a continuous eighth-note pattern. The second system continues the introduction with more complex figures in both staves. The third system introduces a new melodic line in the treble staff while the bass staff continues its rhythmic pattern. The fourth system features a more active treble staff with sixteenth-note runs. The fifth system shows a change in the bass staff, with the treble staff continuing its melodic development. The sixth system concludes the piece with a final chord in the treble and a sustained bass line. Dynamic markings include 'p' (piano) at the beginning of the first system and 'ff' (fortissimo) at the start of the sixth system.
