The first system of musical notation consists of three staves. The top staff is a single melodic line in treble clef with a key signature of one sharp (F#) and a 3/4 time signature. It contains a continuous stream of eighth notes, mostly beamed in groups of four, with some slurs. The middle and bottom staves are grand staff notation (treble and bass clefs). The middle staff has a treble clef and contains chords and some single notes, with a few slurs. The bottom staff has a bass clef and contains chords and single notes, with a few slurs. The system ends with a double bar line.

The second system of musical notation consists of three staves. The top staff continues the melodic line from the first system. The middle and bottom staves are grand staff notation. The middle staff has a treble clef and contains chords and single notes, with a few slurs. The bottom staff has a bass clef and contains chords and single notes, with a few slurs. The system ends with a double bar line.

The third system of musical notation consists of three staves. The top staff continues the melodic line from the first system. The middle and bottom staves are grand staff notation. The middle staff has a treble clef and contains chords and single notes, with a few slurs. The bottom staff has a bass clef and contains chords and single notes, with a few slurs. The system ends with a double bar line.

The fourth system of musical notation consists of three staves. The top staff continues the melodic line from the first system. The middle and bottom staves are grand staff notation. The middle staff has a treble clef and contains chords and single notes, with a few slurs. The bottom staff has a bass clef and contains chords and single notes, with a few slurs. The system ends with a double bar line.
