To Alexander Chocke of his Majesty's Exchequer; Esq.

SIR,

This Second Collection of Opera Songs presumes to beg y^r Favour of y^r Patronage. The Encouragement you have always given to useful Performances in Musick (particularly our first Volume & y^r large Subscription to this) has emboldened us to make this Address; being assured that the prefixing y^r Name, will be the best Means of recomending it to the Ingenious, & preventing the Cavils of those whose Interest it is to be angry, & have no other way of procuring any Regard to their own, but by depreciating y^e Performances of others.

We submit y^e whole to y^r Judgment, & are,

SIR,

Your most Obedient & most Humble Serv^ts

J. Cluer,

A Favourite SONG in y.e Opera of Darius,

Largo — In English and Italian.

S'ho lassa il pie colpa d'amor sol e ma
Oh cruel Fair, can you leave me to despair, can you dolce sonno almen pace mi ren...da il tuo dolor tor see can y.e see my woe, & yet no Pity show, Oh hear y.e Swain and menta questo cor amato e caro ben e par l'offenda ease his Pain, or Death will soon remove y.e wretch y.t can love

Must all those Charms,
Then fill my Rival's Arms,
Must I languish & repine,
Yet never see you mine.

Oh cruel Fate,
Oh wretched State,
Yet spight of all my Pain,
I hug y.e pleasing Chain.
